Gehe folgendermaßen vor: Fange in der oberen Reihe in der Mitte an zu lesen (beim roten Pfeil), je nachdem, ob deine Antwort ja oder nein lautet, folgst du jetzt immer entweder dem grünen oder dem roten Pfeil bis zum Ende des Fragebogens.

Lies das Ergebnis und schreibe dann in dein Heft, ob und warum du findest, dass das Ergebnis auf dich zutrifft oder nicht.

12 Are you media mad?

126/9 Take the test and find out how media mad you are! Do you agree with your results? Why/why not?

Yes | No

You sometimes use the internet, but not often.

You spend a few hours online every day.

You spend much more time online than with other hobbies.

You don't have many apps on your phone.

You check your messages all the time!

You like meeting your friends face-to-face. Texting or e-mailing isn't so important to you.

You have video chats with friends and family who you don't see very often.

Your parents think you spend too much time online or in front of the TV.

Do you ever post photos of yourself online?

Have you ever bought anything online?

You like 'real' shopping in shops better than online shopping.

You download all your music and listen to it on your phone.

You check for messages just two or three times a day.

You like looking at photos of your friends online and you always comment.

You post lots of photos of yourself online so everyone can see.

You love new apps for your phone.

You always compare prices online before you go shopping.

You don't care about video games. Boring!

– You're media mad! You love technology and media and have a lot of fun with it. Too much? Remember that sometimes it's good to go out and do other things with your friends. Try to stay away from your phone or laptop a few hours every day!

! You're clever with media! You know media can help you a lot, e.g. to talk to your friends. You like to be outside and have fun in other ways. But look for new ways to use the media too! There are lots of things to discover.

? You don't use media very much! You like to be outside, talk to your friends face-to-face, and go to real shops. But maybe your 'media mad' friends could tell you about how much fun media can be and how media can help you. Think about it!
