

Bend it like Beckham

Choose the correct answer. More than one answer might be correct.

- 1) When Jess and her father return home
  - he shouts at her because of all her lies.
  - she says that she's sorry for all her lies.
  - nobody is interested in all her lies.

- 2) Teetu's parents
  - don't want their son to be unhappy and miserable. → So the wedding is on again
  - know now that it was just a girl they saw with Jess the other day.
  - apologize to Pinky for making her so unhappy by calling off the wedding.

- 3) Mr Bhamra fixes the date for Pinky's wedding
  - on the day of the final against the Queen's Park Rangers (QPR).
  - right on Jess's birthday.
  - on the day of the return match against the Germans.

- 4) Jules tells Jess that
  - the team missed her at training.
  - Joe told her what had happened with Jess's dad.
  - an American scout will be watching the next match.

- 5) Mr Paxton tries to explain some basic football rules to his wife while eating a meal. The sea salt is
  - the defender.
  - the attacker.
  - the goal keeper.

The sea salt has to be level with the mustard (= the defender)

- 6) Jess's exam results are really good, so she is
  - happy because _____
  - unhappy because she has other priorities / dreams; becoming a solicitor is not her dream

- 7) Jess finds the party with her extended family
  - funny because of the interesting conversations and the dancing.
  - exciting because the man of her dreams seems to be very interested in her. ← she is not interested in the man that shows an interest in her
  - boring and annoying.

- 8) When Joe comes along
  - Jess is happy to see him because _____
  - Jess is not happy to see him because he makes it sound so easy - to make her dream come true;

every time she has made up her mind not to play football any more and to accept her situation, he says something that makes her question her decision