

It's a mystery!

Remember the reading skills skimming, scanning and reading for detail.

Look at S5–6, pages 145–146, in your book if you need help.

Look at the text again.

1. Use your scanning skills.

Is there any information about these things?

Tick v the boxes.

- | | | | |
|--|---|---|---------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> historical costumes | <input type="checkbox"/> Norman food | <input type="checkbox"/> photo-editing | <input type="checkbox"/> a class trip |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a student exchange | <input type="checkbox"/> a calendar shoot | <input type="checkbox"/> a history museum | <input type="checkbox"/> an accident |

2. Use your reading skills for reading for detail.

Are the statements below right or wrong?

Tick v the correct box and write down the line numbers where you found the information in the text. Correct the wrong sentences.

	Right	Wrong	Line
1. Jim can't remember why he is in hospital.
2. The photo shoot is at the hospital.
3. Holly is late for the photo shoot because she's broken her arm.
4. Olivia is angry at Holly because she doesn't want to be her lady-in-waiting.
5. Jay likes his costume.
6. Jim had an accident after the photo shoot.
7. The Tudor photo can't be used for the calendar.
