S.78/2 What belongs, what doesn't belong in the scene?, Aufgabenteil b)

- Jay had photobombed the Tudor photo as a Victorian.
- You could see the photo equipment in the background.
- Somebody had forgotten a plastic bottle on the left.
- Somebody had left a blue bag on the right.
- You could see Gwen's yellow modern shoe from under her dress.
- Jim has zoomed in on the scene so these modern things are no longer in the picture.

- You could see Holly's green watch.
- It's also from the wrong period so Jim has edited it out.

- Holly has drawn her dress over her plaster cast.

The changes to the photo were important to make the scene look real.

WB S.58/23 It's a mystery!

It's a mystery! → SB 78; S5, S6

- a) Here is Jim's story of what happened. His memory of the accident is still not very clear. Find and underline the mistakes in his version. Then write the correct version in your exercise book.

"My friend Claire had asked me to do a photo shoot for the local community centre calendar. Lots of teenagers were there. They all wore clothes from the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. I remember that I was taking a photo of a boy and a girl, and the girl kept asking me to zoom in on her.

Then I went out to my car to get a bottle of water. I opened my car door, and suddenly another car hit me. The next thing I remember was that I woke up here in hospital. Anyway, one of the teenagers took the photos. She showed them to me. They aren't bad! I can make a few small changes, and they'll be fine. But it's been a lesson for me. Next time I'll be more careful. I hope the people who crashed into me are OK."

from British history / the Roman, Norman, Tudor and Victorian period; boy ... him; some more equipment; boot; (a girl on) a bike; Claire; girl / person / teenager ... is
