SKILLS 16 How to give good advice → SB 83

What is most important when you give advice? Discuss the ideas and put them in a good order, from 1 (very important) to 7 (not so important). individuelle Lösung

Always listen or read carefully.

Give very clear advice.

Don't make it into a drama.

Try to make the person feel good.

Say true things.

If the problem is too serious, tell them that they should talk to a teacher or another adult.

Don't tell other people.

a) Read the sentences. What are they about? Write A for asking for advice and G for giving it.

G I think that you should talk to your friend now.

A I feel angry all the time and I don't know what to do.

A I can't keep my friends. I don't understand why nobody likes me.

G My advice is to decide what is most important for you.

A My parents always have fights and they never talk to me.

G It's always a good idea to do what you really need to do.

G Stop thinking that parents can be your best friends and parents at the same time.

▲ b) Choose one of the sentences in a). Then write a letter to an agony aunt (A) and say what the problem is or write the agony aunt's reply and give advice (G).
